

Christine Anderson

Design Biography

Christine Anderson is the President of Communication Arts + Design, Inc., a public relations agency providing PR and marketing services to architects, designers and design showrooms.

For over 20 years, she and her team have publicized numerous design luminaries and exquisite product lines. Her current client list includes Snyder Diamond; Soli Architectural Surfaces; Burdge and Associates Architects; and All Coast Construction. Past clients include Richard Landry; Steven Ehrlich; NBBJ Architects; Leo A Daly; Altoon + Porter and Coop Himmelblau.

Ms. Anderson's agency works in all facets of communications and provides PR expertise in media relations; special events and marketing support for a variety of design platforms. Her staff advises clients on cultural and charitable support programs and develops PR programming keyed to the designer, architect and consumer.

She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Mass Communication Studies from UCLA, with a minor in art history, and attended the master's program in film studies. Her career activities include participation with the A plus D Museum ; LA Conservancy; the Institute for Classical Architecture and Art; LACMA; MOCA; The Hammer Museum; and Art Table. She has also reported extensively for National Public Radio's 'Arts LA' and Performance Today' programs. In her spare time she plays tennis and golf, and does yoga for pure salvation.